Religious Advisor: Shuttle Cock
Hash Cash: Fire Tunnel, Trail Head
On Secs: French Drip, Beam Me Up Twatty

10,000 years ago when Hobbits roamedOh No!, it was only 104 days ago since the pack of hounds roamed around the area of the route to Hempstead.

On a rainy Sunday afternoon at Northwest mall a pack of 42.5 hashers gathered to blast off into the unknown. What happened at the start? Press on. No notes here. The main pack attack moves towards Hempstead Highway hashes northbound and turns right down a false trail on Karbach (thinking about all those "bachs" in Deutschland). Perterbuilt showed up about this time offering us a beer from his vehicle. Notes: (POST OAK Right-Right at WH.SAXET) After much looking the pack was on trail down N. Post Oak to check #457 where we turned right close to Tex-Tube and ended up in the lucky Ben-Wa Balls neighborhood. Through the parking lot, next to the ware house across the ditch and...check #392-searching the Ben-Wa hood. (Notes: Left on Aldrich (NITWIT) Becomes Clawson). From there true trail (after 37 falses) went southbound) which way did he go?) down Aldrich street, across Westview and down to Clawson where of came out to Silber. At this point, the pack of Nitwir, FMR, Dirty Sanchez, Choo Choo, etc., etc., were eagerly sniffing out the trail. Southbound on Silber to check #396=false trails in different directions and true trail to the east towards the Entertainment complex. Through the outdoor mall and back into the parking lot on the SE side. I had been there the night before to see Matrix Reloaded (Will-He Peters favorite movie of all time). It was awesome. Now its onto Revolutions. When the Hash runs through and area like malls it is quite comical to see the looks on civilians faces. It would be quite entertaining to take a video some time. (NOTES: BLAH BLAH LEFT ON SILBER EDWARDS TUNNEL- METRO). The trail continues towards I-10, hits the feeder road to check #453 at a tunnel going under I-10. As I departed the check I saw Dick the Boy Wonder and Jackie (?New Boot) head into the toxic waters of the drainage tunnel and true trail. The FMR, Dirty Sanchez pack continued eastbound towards the Metro Park and Ride to short cut the part of the trail that went under I-10 and came back across on Post Oak. (NOTES: FEEDER RAILROAD TRACKS). Trail continues through the Metro P and R, under 610 and I-10 and picks up northbound on the feeder road at Old Katy Road. I did have some funny shit that people said along the way but, this is what happens when you do the write up into the next quarter. Trail then turns right and heads towards the railroad tracks "circle" where several hashes have ended. True trail cuts between warehouse buildings, goes to the tracks, and does a circle jerk where we hash through the site where Grind and French Drip ended many moons ago. Back down more tracks (hey, this is sounding like one of my runs), left through a field and over a cyclone fence (Wow, Marine Corps type climbing) across Katy Road to Portway Street , south on Portway past the SPCA. (NOTES: THROUGH OLD END SITE) As we turned the corner onto Portwest I see this METRO COP traveling at warp speed down Portwest with lights on blazin! I thought, we were in somdeepshit this time and then a nanosecond later I remembered that Squeaky Dick worked for Metro. I was correct. It was the FAST and FURIOUS SQUEAKY DICK!

(NOTES:PORTWAY RIGHT ON PORTWEST)
Squeaky Dick and Bucky Ben-Wa Balls were at the end to hang out with the Hash. Several days later. CIRCLE UP: Visitors: Squeaky Dick, Pinball (Austin H3), Dirty Sanchez (from Bay City Michigan), A & B=? NEW BOOTS( Virgins): Jackie (Dirty Sanchez made her cum), and Monica (Tuna Pucker made her cum). REBOOTS: Deadly, Pipes, Sextoy, Womb Service, Choo BIRTHDAYS: Tuna Pucker, Carrie, Beam Me Up Twatty VISITORS: Peterbuilt/Dolemite (Chicago H3-which he says sucks.) ACCUSATIONS: Burning Rubber=no maps on the cars, Dirty Sanchez for not wanting to cross the water. (NOTES: BLAH BLAH BLAH JACKIE>PUMP ME PUMP ME=?)

On!On! To Greener pastures. That's all hashers!
