Start Location: Zydeco Diner

The pack gathered in the parking lot for Zydeco diner in downtown Houston. The weather was overcast, windy, and a little bit warm for the season. We had been encouraged to clothe ourselves in "St. Prick" attire in many hasher's were sporting red and green and Santa Claus hats.

The Trail

Trail took off zigging and zagging Northwest through downtown with the pack staying fairly cohesive until we got to Buffalo Bayou after Northwest edge of downtown. There the pack split off on both sides of Buffalo Bayou and headed east.

Apparently, it was at this point that there was a liquor check. However, almost none of the pack found it and only 10 harriers were able to brag about enjoying the rum, apple cider, and cake.

True trail then headed south next to the baseball stadium and then east under 45. We continued east for a mile and then south over some more railroad tracks and South into an industrial area to the On In. The On In was actually a commercial building converted into a residence.

We were treated to a keg of St. Arnold's Christmas ale, steaming hot macaroni and cheese, and the leftover rum, apple cider, and chocolate cake from the elusive liquor check on trail.

Although when the pack took off there were only about 40 hounds, by the time everyone had gathered at the On In, there were about 60 hounds! Where did they come from?

The Circle

The circle started off honoring the hares, we welcomed four new boots, and about one third of the pack were reboots. We were then surprised by the appearance of good old St. Prick, and he proceeded to distribute holiday presents for everyone! The session of accusations was extremely short due to the fact that the keg was sucked down so quickly!

The On On On

... was at the Brewery Tap downtown and the Houston Hash was intent on continuing to spread cheer deeper into the night! Luckily, we did not get kicked out when the Harriettes got up on the tables to dance! Sorry I can't remember much of the details of this... I was enjoying myself as well!

Great Holiday Hash!
