

Hash Trash #1872

---

The glorious, notorious BIG BLAP III

Hosted by Hares: Grind Slut (and his Speedo tan lines) and McPisser

Trail began in the parking lot of an out-of-business Wal-Mart (can that happen to a Wal-Mart?) and started out looking like a pavement pounder. Then things took a turn for the wet. This wasn't so much a trail as several swims with a bit of intermittent running through the woods. I did enjoy leaping across creeks and frolicking in the TP-laden woods like a young spring fawn. Oh, then there were the brambles. The last half mile was a straightaway through thorns that made concertina wire look like soft merino yarn. But, the delicious beer and succulent chili courtesy of le Cuisine de Slut made up for it.
